About Isaac Bruce and the Isaac Bruce Foundation

Isaac epitomizes greatness both on and off the field. Between the lines, the wide receiver is a future Hall of Famer, gaining more than 15,000 receiving yards and scoring 91 touchdowns during his 14 seasons with the Rams and two seasons with the 49ers. He retired as No. 2 all-time on the NFL Receiving Yards list and No. 5 on the NFL Receptions list.

Isaac launched the Isaac Bruce Foundation in 2006 which focuses on health, wellness, nutrition, fitness and education. Through the Foundation, Isaac reaches out to youth and teaches them at an early age the importance of a healthy lifestyle with an emphasis on education.

- Flight 300 Program • Literacy Efforts • Free Football Clinics • Scholarship Program • Charitable Merchandise Program

The IBF has impacted the lives of thousands through the programs above. More than a quarter of a million dollars has been donated for scholarships and grants, an applicant for the Flight 300 transportation program has never been turned away, and Isaac donates more than 300 pieces of signed merchandise to charitable organizations annually to assist them in fundraising efforts. More than 6,500 kids have participated in our free football clinics which provide youth the opportunity to work on their football skills, sportsmanship, and teamwork skills, while building self-esteem both on and off the field. Most recently, Isaac has committed $50,000 to St. Louis Public Schools in an effort to update the school libraries with new, relevant titles through the IBF's literacy programs.
